Attached Sheet for No. 5

This firm rendered legal services on miscellaneous legal matters to the Embassy of the Republic of Togo at various times in the past. During the period covered by this registration statement, no services of any kind were rendered by registrant to this Embassy. Registrant accordingly considers its relationship terminated. The date of June 3, 1966 is stated for the purpose of convenience as the termination date, in order to indicate that no services of any kind have been rendered during registrant's last registration period to the Embassy of the Republic of Togo.

1. Embassy of Belgium.

Advising and representation of the Embassy staff on personal matters such as the determination of residence for college registration and tuition purposes; advising the Embassy with respect to the public availability of patents owned by the United States Government; advising and representation of a Belgian citizen with respect to Treasury Department procedures for the unblocking of the United States assets of a Cuban estate; advising of a Belgian citizen with respect to the choice of law rules of the Puerto Rican courts for divorce cases.

2. Government of the French Republic.

Preparation of will for a member of the Embassy staff; advising members of the Embassy staff on personal matters, such as landlord-tenant disputes; advising Embassy on applicability of D.C. deed recordation tax to real property acquisition by the Embassy.

3. Embassy of Italy.

Advising Embassy on local criminal law procedures in connection with a robbery at the Embassy; on the public availability of recent patents owned by the United States Government; on the liability of Italian citizens residing in the United States for United States military service; and the advising and representation of members of the Embassy staff on personal matters, such as a landlord-tenant dispute, and an automobile accident.
